OTTO'S CONSTANT DREAM
RIESLING

Otto has no sweet tooth, hence he prefers his Riesling off-dry, and tries to convert people with the zeal of a Mormon missionary.

conceptual doppelgänger

The dryest of dry comedians has made deadpan ludicrousness an institution. When one hears a classic Steven Wright riff, confusion can reign before he brings it home and puts a beatific smile of satisfaction on your face. Hello? Flippin' OCD Riesling come to life! That's the magic of dry...even if it's just off-dry - Riesling isn't a total wierdo like Steven!

Producer

OCD is the wine that launched Communal Brands. Inspired by Melissa Saunders' obsessive nature about wine, her friend and future business partner, Chris Antista, created a wine in her honor: OCD. She applied said obsessive nature to find the right juice for our eponymous brand, ultimately finding a warm connection in her husband's native New Zealand. There, her wine-making counterpart, Fiona Turner, had the same passion for wine and was a proven pot stirrer capable of making the wine OCD needed to be. Add to this mix aforementioned husband and a cadre of fellow New Yorkers with a penchant for wine and games, and Otto's Constant Dream was born. The name? You'll have to ask the authorities about that ;-).

Viti/Vini

Sustainable. De-stemmed, crushed, and pressed off skins as quickly as possible. Fermentation at cool temperatures (11-15 degrees Celsius) in stainless steel vats. On lees for 8-10 days. Early bottling to maintain freshness.
